Allyson Taylor, JD Biography

Allyson Taylor is the Commissioner of the Kentucky Department for Alcoholic Beverage Control, a position she has held since December of 2019, when she was appointed by Governor Andy Beshear.

Before that, she worked with then Attorney General, Andy Beshear, as the Executive Director of his newly created Office of Child Abuse and Human Trafficking Prevention and Prosecution, where she worked to shape policy and response to cases involving child exploitation, internet enticement and human trafficking of both adults and children.

Allyson also served as the Chief of Staff for the Kentucky Department for Public Health, under Governor Steve Beshear and as the Director of the Prosecutors Advisory Council and the Office of Victims Advocacy under Attorney General Jack Conway.

Allyson began her career as a prosecutor in the Jefferson County Attorney's Domestic Violence, Child Abuse and Sexual Assault Unit where she worked for almost a decade.

***** GET OUT THE VOTE *****

UNA Advocacy Chair Jay Sjerven and Vice Chair Teena Halbig remind us that it is time to work on GOTV:

Here is a novel way to highlight voting using the creation of Karen Mulhauser's Votemeal Cookie Recipe. Feel free to send this to anyone you can to encourage voting.

Some states will have vote by mail but there are deadlines to apply over the internet to request an application. Any voting information you need can be found from your Local Board of Elections or State Board of Elections. You can also ask who your representatives are in local, state and federal offices by giving your address. Attend election forums to hear candidates and ask questions.

Meanwhile, enjoy these cookies yourself - or write VOTE on them or the election date to give to friends, family, etc.!

Karen's Vote-meal Cookie Recipe

Ingredients

- 1.5 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- [optional]
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup [2 sticks] soft butter
- 1 cup brown sugar
- ½ cup granulated sugar
- 2 large eggs
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1 tablespoon molasses
- 3 cups rolled oats
- 1 ¾ cups combination chocolate chips, peanut butter chips & chopped pecans. And sometimes shaved coconut

What to do

- Preheat the oven to 355°F. Lightly grease baking sheet(s).
- Beat together the butter until smooth. Add sugar and beat about 2 minutes
- Beat in the egg, then the molasses and vanilla.
- Combine in separate bowl the flour, cinnamon, baking soda and salt
- Add dry ingredients to the wet ingredients and mix well
- Add and mix well the oats and chips, nuts & coconut
- You can cover a chill in the refrigerator.
- Drop 1" dough balls on the prepared baking sheets,
- Bake the cookies for 12-14 minutes.
- Remove the cookies from the oven, and cool right on the pan, or on a rack.

Made especially for you by Karen Mulhauser
